

Franck Dadure

THE FAKIR ORCHESTRA

JAZZ ➡ Electronics

In the category of experimental creators, this specimen is worthy of special consideration. Producer and musician multiscard, Franck Dadure suffers from a disorder that we will not seek to heal: he has a wandering identity. Firmly affirmed, but refusing to get bogged down in any square, she runs from one idea to another, virtuously praising the spirit of the staircase and the ricochet sound. Electronica, Middle Eastern groove, free, concrete or psychedelic music ... From these labels, this iconoclast makes a cloud of confetti, a real party for loose heads and legs that do not hold in place, can beat his full. Shaking hard the established order, his electrified Turkish clarinet deposit new truths in the ears of fans of unheard-of. And his machines and instruments tamper with transform his turnies into odes to disorder. It will be understood, Franck Dadure does better than give concerts: he commits intoxicating attacks on musical mores and poetic order .
